Local drive-through coffee franchise Bearclaw Coffee Co. has opened a new location in Ypsilanti on Ellsworth Road.

Mike and Shelly Jones opened the franchise about a month ago and are seeing more business daily as folks become accustomed to the concept.

Mike Jones said he and his wife looked at other franchises, but settled on Bearclaw because of the modest startup costs and the quality of the product.

The Dexter-based franchise now has six locations and is planning to open locations in Dearborn, Detroit, Chelsea and Ann Arbor this year.
